- 11. Dresden, Königsbrückerstrasse. An engineer unit of about 200 men with construction equipment and about 30 vehicles arrived on 28 Feb 54. No other changes have been observed.
- 12. Riesa. Soviet parachute troops carried out exercises near the Klbe, between Strahla and Riesa, on 1 Mar 54. The men jumped from a height of about 250 meters from two-engined planes in continuous flight. About 180 men in all jumped. They were followed by the dropping of equipment, apparently machine guns and mortars. The exercises were continued until dark.
- 13. Zeitz. About 30 Soviet tanks and 12 trucks drawing 85 mm guns arrived at the Zeitz freight railway station on 27 Feb 54, coming from the direction of Geussnitz.

  Twelve T-34 tanks were observed on 2 Mar 54 proceeding towards Langenberg. The tank orews returned to Zeitz in trucks.
- 14. Rostock. Eight officers of the Soviet port administration have gone back to the Soviet Union with their families. No new officers have arrived in their places. On 26 Feb 54, twenty-two Stalin I tanks were seen coming from the direction of Ribnitz towards Bad Doberab. The tanks showed no numbers, only a white circle about 7 cm in diameter under the driver's cab. The tanks were followed by six trucks. Three of the trucks had "Stalin organs" mounted on them; the other three were loaded with cases of ammunition. The trucks also had white circles on them and carried the
- 15. Schwerin. The following buildings in Schwerin are occupied at present by Soviet troops: the former infantry barracks in Werderstrasse, the barracks in Ludwigsluster-strasse, the barracks in Rudolf Breitscheidtstrasse, the former Marstall Barracks in Werderstrasse, the former artillery barracks, and the hospital at Goethestrasse 74. Also private dwellings in Werderstrasse, Cacilienaliee, Schliemannstrasse, Herzogring, and at Püsserkrüg near the Püsserkrüg Barracks. These barracks have also been occupied for about the last two weeks. The army bakery is in Lübeckerstrasse. The army magazine is at the corner of Schmiede and Schusterstrasse.
